

Dear Parents and Carers,

13th November 2023 marks the beginning of Anti Bullying Week. All children will be participating in activities throughout the school to ensure that we continue, as a school, to do all we can to ensure we are making St Bart's the best place it can be.

A purple poster for 'Odd Socks Day'. In the top left corner, there is a small photo of two boys sitting on a stone wall. The main text 'Odd Socks Day' is written in a large, bold, white font. To the right of the text is a large, stylized red letter 'O' with a white outline, and below it are two colorful, patterned socks. In the top right corner, there are two small icons of socks, one black and one red. Below the main text, the date 'MONDAY 13TH NOVEMBER' is written in a bold, white font. Underneath the date, there are two columns of text in white. The left column explains the event, and the right column mentions a resource pack. A red icon of a document with a download arrow is located to the right of the second column of text.

Odd Socks Day

MONDAY 13TH NOVEMBER

Like every year, we kick off with Odd Socks Day on the Monday of Anti-Bullying Week. Odd Socks Day is a chance for schools to celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a positive way by asking pupils and staff to wear odd socks to school. There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or buy expensive costumes. All you need to do to take part is wear odd socks, it could not be simpler!

Odd Socks day will take place on the first day of Anti Bullying Week, Monday 13th November to help raise awareness for Anti-Bullying Week.

It comes with a pack for schools, posters, a pack for workplaces and flyers to help you get involved. You can find them here.

Thank you for your support – we look forward to a fun and informative week.

Kind regards,

Sarah Oakland

Assistant Headteacher